ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

The goal of the Women's Symposium on Harassment Prevention is to get ahead of the discussion on harassment and begin talking about prevention in businesses and in schools. We will be holding a panel discussion with community leaders on how we can use our individual and collective voice to prevent harassment. #BetterTogether

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Passionate & Purposeful Women & Men that want to be a part of the harassment-prevention conversation.
- Administrators, Teachers, Parents, and Students that want to instill confidence, establish boundaries, and give voice to the next generation.
- Business Leaders & Professionals that want to bring harassment-prevention into the workplace.
